ONE MONTH FROM TODAY.

The Opening of the State Normal and Industrial School.

In order to answer numerous inquiries, the following statements are made in regard to the opening of the State Normal and Industrial College and the terms on which students are admitted:

1. The college department will begin its eighth annual session Thursday, October 5.
2. The Practice and Observation School (being graded school No. 3) will begin its work September 18.

3. Any young woman who, on October 5, will be sixteen years old, counting her nearest birthday, and who is prepared to begin the study of Latin and Algebra, can be admitted to the college.

4. All students pay $14 in fees for registration, use of text-books, medical attention, etc. Young women boarding at their homes or in private families near the college and agreeing to become teachers in the public or private schools of the State for at least two years after leaving the college, are, by the charter of the institution, exempt from tuition fees. Those who do not wish to take the pledge to teach will pay $40 a year tuition.

5. Those whose English and mathematical education will permit their doing so, may enter for the Commercial Course, including stenography, typewriting and book-keeping, or any other single course, such as Domestic Science, and their expenses for the year, in addition to the $14 in fees, will be only $20.

6. In the dormitories of the college board is furnished at actual cost to all students, and by the charter of the institution this cost cannot go beyond $8 a month. A certain number of the boarding places in the dormitories are reserved for free-tuition students who take a pledge to become teachers, and the remainder for tuition-paying students who do not take a pledge to teach. All the free-tuition vacancies have been filled, and all the tuition-paying vacancies will be filled within a week. Of course it is possible that some of the appointees may be compelled by sickness or for some other providential reason to give up their places between now and October 5, in which case new applicants will be admitted to fill vacancies.

7. A number of the students will desire to board in private families near the college. Our students will not be permitted to board in homes which take other boarders and only in such homes as will adopt the regulations and discipline of the college dormitories so far as it may be practicable to do so. If there are families in Greensboro desiring boarders I should be glad to have notification by letter stating the number of boarders desired and the price to be charged.

8. Miss Laura Brockmann will have charge of the instrumental music and will give lessons in her studio in the main college building instead of in a private studio near the State Normal and Industrial College as heretofore. Miss Brockmann will have such assistance as the conditions may require.

9. All who expect to enter the college next year should send at once for a copy of the catalogue and formal application blank to be filled out.
Charles D. McVey,
President.

Retailing Cases Dismissed.
Eleven cases against Ben Wilkinson, charged with retailing whiskey, came up for trial in 'Squire Eekle's' court yesterday afternoon, and all were dismissed. Wilkinson conducts a whiskey distillery south of town, and is licensed by the government to sell whiskey in quantities of one gallon or more. The county officials claimed to have discovered irregularities at the distillery, but at the trial yesterday afternoon very little evidence was produced to show that the business had not been conducted according to law.

At the Depot.
A gentleman waiting for the train at the depot today with a grip sack in his hand containing a tooth brush and a celluloid collar, remarked that there was only one thing in the world exhibiting in such a marked degree the elements that contribute to the make-up of the phool as a crowd of school boys going off on a train. The ever-present sucker was there and asked: "What's that?" and the gentleman replied: "A crowd of school girls." Just then he boarded the train and left.

At the earnest solicitation of friends I have decided to open a private kindergarten on September 18. Having been in the work for the past six years I assure the public of the most thorough and up to date kindergarten methods.

GRAVITY OF LABOR'S STEP

Demands the Summoning of Foreigners to the Court

GENERAL ROGET CHALLENGED

To Fight a Duel With Colonel Schneider at Belgium When the Trial is Over.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Rennes, Sept. 5.—The session behind closed doors of the court martial of Dreyfus is to end until 8:15 this morning. At the opening of the public hearing, Labori demanded the summoning of Col. Schneider, Col. Schwartzkoppen, Maj. Parizade and other foreign attaches to refute officially the charges that Dreyfus had betrayed the military secrets to them. The government prosecutor thought it would be inconvenient to admit the intervention of foreigners and a member of a foreign office also. The gravity of the step of Labori is dwelt upon. The court will take time to consider the matter.

LABORI'S REQUEST REFUSED.

Rennes, Sept. 5.—The court has unanimously rejected Labori's request for documents from foreign governments.

BASSETT'S TESTIMONY.

Rennes, Sept. 5.—Reporter Bassett, of the Paris Matin, testified that Eschazy confessed to him that he wrote the bordereau orders of Col. Sandherr in order to catch the member of the staff whom afterwards Eschazy said was Dreyfus. Labori called upon Roget to testify in regard to letters he had received from Eschazy since the trial. Roget looked like a ghost and admitted receiving letters, but expressed the conviction that Eschazy was a stranger to treason.

IN FAVOR OF DREYFUS.

Rennes, Sept. 5.—M. T. Barieux, former minister of justice, has made a long deposition in favor of Dreyfus. It recounts a conversation with a foreign ambassador who asserted in a tone of the greatest sincerity that Dreyfus never had relations with any officer of his country, the ambassador adding, 'I possess documents proving the guilt of Eschazy.'

General Roget Challenged.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Sept. 5.—Col. Schneider, a former attaché of the Austrian embassy, has challenged Gen. Roget to a duel, to be fought at Belgium after all the evidence in the Dreyfus trial has been introduced. Schneider's seconds are expected at Rennes.

The City Schools.

The city schools, which opened Friday, are steadily at work now and Superintendent Grimley is well pleased with the start. 750 pupils have been enrolled at numbers 1 and 2, white, and 300 at the two colored schools. Number 3, white, will open on September 18. This has an average attendance of over 200, which will bring the number of pupils in the white city schools up to almost a thousand. About 100 pupils have been enrolled in the high school department in the old catholic church on North Forbis street. This is the first year of this department and it starts off under the most favorable circumstances.

District Court.

Deputy Marshal Logan is sending out the jury list for the next term of district court which convenes here October 5th. The circuit court convenes here on the same day, and Judges Simonson and Ewart will hold forth in their respective capacities here at the same time.

The juryman from Guilford are as follows: G. Will Armfield, John P. Starr, J. W. Weatherly, Frank Green, John Lowry, J. W. Cauley, John W. Knight, C. A. Wharton, W. D. Moore, Fremont Lamb, R. A. Fleming, John M. McLean.

An import order has been delivered us of handkerchief ties. They were ordered to retail at 75c. The price during the sale will be 45c. Retiring sale now in progress. All goods sold at 60 cents on the dollar. Fishplate: Katz Co., Inc., Clothiers and Furnishers, opposite McAdoo Hotel.

A Woman Killed Near Hot Springs
A-heville, Sept. 4.—Late Saturday night Tom Goode, Jr., went to the house of Francis Arawood, near Hot Springs, and demanded admittance. The woman refused and Goode threatened to shoot. She still refused and Goode fired twice, the second time through a hole in the wall. The bullet struck the woman in the stomach, causing a wound from which she died yesterday. At last accounts Goode had not been found.

An excellent new line of ladies' Cincinnati-made lace and button shoes has just been opened up for sale at Thacker & Brockmann's. They are to be sold at $2.00 and $2.50, and they are first-class and up to date in every particular.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU
HIGH POINT, N. C., Sept. 5.

J. Elwood Cox went south last night.

The signal post at the depot here is receiving a new coat of paint.

There is some talk of establishing another newspaper in High Point.

W. C. Denny is building an addition to his residence on South Main street.

W. D. Rush, of Asheboro, and C. S. Morris, of Central Falls, were here yesterday.

James Scroggs left on the early morning train for Durham to attend Trinity College.

Will Show left this morning for Raleigh to enter the A. & M. college at that place.

The reason we were in the dark last night was because the dynamo at the electric light plant broke down.

Dr. J. W. Long, wife and children, of Salisbury, spent a few hours in this city yesterday, returning home in the evening.

Miss Mabel Heltman, of Trinity, passed through this morning enroute to Greensboro, where she will enter A. F. College.

Miss Mary Clodfelder, of Lexington, who has been visiting Miss Donna Burns for some time, returned to her home last evening.

Lindsay Hopkins, traveling salesman for the Cleveland Refining Co., left for the South last evening, after spending a few days here.

Mrs. W. P. Fick and charming daughter, Miss Elma, and Miss Hallie Grimes, of Thomasville, were in the city this morning, shopping.

Please bear in mind that Dr. J. C. Davis will conduct services at the Episcopal church next Friday night and that you are cordially invited to attend.

Col. R. T. Pickens, of Lexington; C. C. McAllister, of Asheboro; and P. C. Pope and R. M. C. Bullington two clever drummers, were in the city yesterday.

Miss Nannie Hallinger, of Guilford college, and Miss Thornton, of Winston, arrived yesterday to be present at the Thornton-Smith marriage in the M. E. church tomorrow morning.

We dropped in on John Martin, proprietor of the High Point broom factory, this morning and found the boys hard at work. Mr. Martin is meeting with success right along, having made several good shipments already. At present the output of the plant is ten or twelve dozen per day, and the force will be increased as the trade demands it. Success to this new enterprise.

We are told by Chas. W. Warlick, who represents the German Reform S. S. Mission board in this district, that his denomination has an option on some land here preparatory to building a house of worship thereon, at an early date. Mr. Warlick tells us that that are several members of this church in and around High Point, and that he himself contemplates moving to our city in the near future. His home is at present in Greensboro.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

Marriage of Two Popular Young People This Morning.

The marriage of Mr. Will G. Lewis and Miss Marie Yost was solemnized at 10 o'clock this morning at the home of the bride's parents, on South Spring street. Rev. P. D. Risinger, of the Lutheran church, performed the impressive ceremony in the presence of about a score of friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

Two hours after the ceremony the happy couple boarded the fast train for Washington. They will visit Philadelphia and Morristown, Pa., and returning to Greensboro on the 26th, instant, will be given a complimentary reception.

The Telegram joins their many friends in extending congratulations and in wishing them a long and happy life.

A Fiddler!

Ever hear a baby swine squeal when hung in the crack of a fence? Ever hear the rusty hinges of a barn door squeak? Ever hear the blood-curdling sound of a wooden gate swinging in the wind with forked sticks for hinges, on a bleak December day? Ever hear the moaning winds shriek among the rafters of a haunted house? Ever hear a young lamb lost from its mother, bleat in a gold February rain? Those sounds are resonant with soul-inspiring melody compared to the noise made by a fiddler who can't fiddle.

VAGUE AND CONTRADICTIONARY.

London, Sept. 5.—The latest from various points in South Africa are vague and contradictory. Nothing more is known of the negotiations between Great Britain and the Transvaal government than was learned yesterday. The British war office denies emphatically that any reverses have been called out or any steps taken toward that end. A Boer organ here prints a dispatch from Pretoria saying that the tension there is apparently less severe. It is believed the arrangements proposed at the conference at Cape Town will be completed, although it is unlikely that Kruger will attend.

A HOT COON CHASE.

Four Shots Fired, Increasing the Speed of the Coon.

Last evening about dusk a lively race was witnessed on the yards of the Southern railway east of the depot. While waiting for the trains due about 7 to 7:30, Policeman Jeffries spied a darkey who was wanted for carrying a gun in his pocket, concealed from the eyes of man and against the peace and dignity of the state, etc. The darkey also spied the policeman and watched his movements.

As Mr. Jeffries moved toward the coon the latter began to move "down the line." Each caught on to the game of the other and their movements became faster. Bystanders saw there was about to be a race and began to close up from all directions to witness it. Jeffries was yet a good distance off, and seeing his rapidly disappearing game, yelled "catch him." This put new springs in the negro's legs, and Officer Pearce, who was near, joined in the chase. He is a swift runner, but the fleeing man was yet fifty yards or more ahead.

The chase started at the South Elm street crossing and as Davis street crossing was reached Mr. Jeffries fired a shot or two and the negro's running gear worked faster. A little further down the road two more shots were fired and the flying man reached a regular fast mail speed. Pearce was in hot pursuit but some freight cars near Sergeant's foundry aided the negro in getting out of sight, and he escaped.

The pistol shots (which were fired only for the purpose of scaring the man) made the chase all the more exciting and a crowd of people large enough to capture Aguinaldo in a Philippine jungle, congregated in a twinkling, believing a tragedy had been or would be enacted.

But it was only a coon chase, and there was nobody shooting behind the officers, consequently the coon ran the fastest.

THE BENBOW.

We were talking a few days since with a Greensboro gentleman who is quite a considerable stockholder in the company formed to rebuild the destroyed Benbow hotel. He informed us that work will at an early day be commenced, and that an elegant structure will rise from the ashes of the old popular stopping place. The hotel will be five stories in height and of every modern convenience, with a beautiful corner entrance facing southeast. This much has been decided upon, but other details are yet to be decided. The house will be a structure of which the Gate City of North Carolina can feel proud.

There is something very sad about the old Benbow, standing with her black and forsaken walls, looking like she is despairingly appealing to the passerby for company in her distress. Once the scene of happiness and revelry, now deserted in her calamity, untenanted save by the bats and rats.

Summer is fast slipping away. Mellow September is here, and but few weeks must elapse before the season of the "sere leaf" will be upon us. The rested tourist, tired of musing in idlen-ness over the yellow-back novel, returns to his city labors. The schools and colleges are opening for the winter, and the happy students take up their studies with a renewed determination to drink deep at the empyrean spring. Business looks up, and the wheels of industry take on a revived whirling. The farmer, gathering the fruits of his labors, begins to think of Jack Frost, frosts and wintry good cheer. Prosperity sits on the post-winds, and the glorious circus is a-coma'.

The Twentieth Century State Edition of the Raleigh News and Observer is a tremendous affair, eclipsing in magnitude probably anything ever attempted by any newspaper. It contains 228 pages of information in regard to the state—educationally, industrially, politically, etc. There are hundreds and hundreds of splendid illustrations of North Carolina's industries, churches and leading institutions, besides prominent men of all branches of business and the professions. The News and Observer's effort is indeed a very great credit to the State and the South, and to the gentlemen who performed its immense labors. We doff our hat and say well done.

The days for the colleges to open with the largest attendances in their history, have arrived.

Will the lion and the Boer scrap?

When I Have Time.

For The Telegram.

When I have time I'll pause and turn aside:

I'll take the narrow way; forsake the wide;

I'll shut the throng of faces where traffic grinds

Forever and anon.

Where lucres's sheen the soul of mankind blinds,

But drives and shoves him on;

And guides his fingers to his neighbor's purse,

And sinks him to perdition's depths or worse;

I'll quit these scenes, some day—

When I have time.

When I have time I'll make my peace

with God;

I'll tread the paths that other saints

have trod;

I'll take my dusty Bible from the shelf

And read it through and through.

I'll learn to love my neighbor as myself

(A precept learned by few)

And then, some day, I'll lay me down to rest,

Well satisfied that I have done my best—

Some day; not now; not yet;

When I have time.

When you have time! God's day of grace gone by,

Your idols, shattered, all around you lie!

The path by which God's saints have climbed the skies

Is barred forever, and your eager,

straining eyes

See now, too late, you've missed not won the goal.

Oh, trifle, lose not by delay thy soul!

Oh, haste, today; yes now—

This is God's time.

Mr. Blauvelt moved to Winston about a year ago from Philadelphia. He is efficient in his line of business and, though he has been in the state only a short while, has planned and erected several handsome buildings. The Telegram welcomes him to Greensboro and wishes him success.

Robert Wept.

Sheriff Gilmer left this morning for Raleigh, having in charge Rufus Alston and Robert Rankin, the two youthful rapists whom Judge Brown sentenced to terms of ten and six years respectively, in the state penitentiary. The negroes, whose ages are 18 and 16 years, were handcuffed together. There was nobody there to tell them goodbye, as is usually the case, and when the train began to move large tears trickled down the cheeks of the younger prisoner, though otherwise his face was as stony as a statue.

Knights of Honor.

There will be a regular meeting of special importance of Guilford Lodge No. 1777 on tomorrow (Tuesday) night at K. of P. hall, at which time and place Grand Dictator J. B. Taking in the situation around Manila. Now let Uncle Sam relieve Otis and give the old Buttermilk Ranger a half chance and you'll very soon hear the insurgents calling for the calf rope. The name Buttermilk Ranger was given to our cavalry during the 60s. An army to be victorious must have confidence in their leader. Take the record of General Jackson. Why, the soldiers under him knew no such thing as defeat, and to just say that Jackson's defence is just as important in the commercial world, and the mere mention of the name creates a panic in the mercantile arena. We cannot understand how we can always get in the rear of their prices, but this is easily explained. For we have a leader that knows every hog path that leads to the manufacturing plants of this country and keeps posted. In this way you see we only buy from first hand, thereby saving the middleman's profit. Our buyer spends weeks in the market. Take the army of stores—Charlotte, Greensboro, Monrovia, and Union, S. C., and you will at once see that it requires tons upon tons of goods to supply them. Buying so largely we take the entire output of a number of factories. In this way we get the inside prices. Our buyer will soon

HARRY-BELK BROS. CO.

In the manufacturing centres of this union and, like Wheeler in the Philippines, you will hear something drop shortly in old Guilford that will astonish the natives. Before this takes place, and in order to make room, we have made JOB COUNTERS in all departments to clean up many valuable lines at half price. Price is no object. The room is what we want and must have. Be quick.
